

The Landers Spotlight

Thoroughly Modern Millie Junior Opens Thursday!

March 3-13, 2011

Book by Richard Henry Morris and Dick Scanlan. Music by Jeanine Tesori. Lyrics by Dick Scanlan.

This youth version of the 2002 Tony Award winning musical comedy tells the story of Kansas native Millie Dillmont who has just moved to New York City in search of a new life for herself. It's New York in the 1920s, full of intrigue and jazz, frisky flappers, dashing leading men, and a dragon-lady of a villainess everyone will love to hate. Full of madcap merriment, this high spirited musical will have everyone dancing the Charleston.

Last chance to register for the workshop: A Grimm Night for Hans Christian Anderson

The Springfield Little Theatre Education Department is thrilled to offer this exciting performance outlet for students interested in theatre! Students will attend three weeks of rehearsals/workshops, which will result in four public performances! This series of shows is designed for performers who wish to strengthen their acting skills while gaining valuable performance experience!

Workshop Dates:

March 7-17 and March 28-31
 M-TH from 5:30 - 7:30pm
 Not meeting for SPS Spring Break

Come see what happens when some of the world's greatest storytellers collide! In this play by Sue Gordon, The Brothers Grimm accuse Hans Christian Andersen of plagiarism. What ensues is a mad-cap mix-up of characters, like they've never been seen before!

Performance Dates:

April 1 at 7:30
 April 2 at 2:30/7:30
 April 3 at 2:30

A message from your Executive Director, Beth Domann

I'm sure many of you heard the unfortunate news regarding the theft that occurred at Springfield Little Theatre. The entire staff and Board wants to thank you for your support. We also wanted to take the time to reassure you that we have put in place practices to ensure that this will never happen again. We are still and always have been a safe place to enjoy live theatre!

Thank you all for your support! If anyone is interested in reading our official comments regarding this matter, here is a link to the statement sent to the media.
