Written by Larry Shue. Charlie, painfully shy, socially awkward Englishman, agrees to accompany his friend, Froggy, to a Georgia fishing lodge while Froggy conducts his annual demolition class at a nearby army base. To protect his super shy friend from unwanted social interaction, Froggy passes Charlie off as a foreigner who neither speaks nor understands English. Because of this, people feel no need to censor their conversations in front of him and so, Charlie's disguise exposes everybody's peccadilloes. The Foreigner is a comic gem and with an unforgettable cast of zany characters offering a tantalizing invitation to sit back, relax, and heartily laugh at the foolishness of life.

June 10-26, 2011 Music and lyrics by Stephen Schwartz. Book by John Caird. Children of Eden is a joyous and inspirational musical about parents, children and faith...not to mention centuries of unresolved family business! Loosely based on the Book of Genesis, Children of Eden is a frank, heartfelt and often humorous examination of the age-old conflict between parents and children. Adam, Eve, Noah and the "Father" who created them deal with the headstrong, cataclysmic actions of their respective children. The show ultimately delivers a bittersweet message: that "the hardest part of love...is letting go."
