Treasure Island opens October 7!

Written by Stephen Kingsbury. Based on the classic story by Robert Louis Stevenson. Young Jim Hawkins, an innkeeper's son, has dreams of adventures on the high seas. After being entrusted with a treasure map by a dying man, young Jim gets his chance by going to sea as a cabin boy aboard the Hispaniola in search of adventure and treasure. This beautifully crafted of arguably the best pirate story ever written is comical, daring and inspiring and comes complete with some awesome pirate battles. Arg!

December 2-12, 2010 Adapted by Will Severin, Patricia DiBenedetto Snyder and John Vreeke from the novel by Valentine Davis. Music by Will Severin. We all love the familiar tale of kindly, bewhiskered man who believes himself to be the real Santa Claus, who is hired to be in the Macy's parade by a harried young mother who had raised her daughter to not believe in Santa, and the mom's lawyer/boyfriend who rescues all three of them. If you've seen the Academy Award winning film, you know the happy outcome. But knowing the ending does not diminish the power of this story to restore the Christmas spirit in even the most determined grinch.

We've ADDED seats for the remaining shows. If you already have a standing room ticket, you can pay the difference. Call 869-1334.

Also, if you know you are not going to use any of the tickets you might already have, please consider donating them back to the theatre.

EIGHT PERFORMANCES ONLY!

November 5-14, 2010 by Del Shores. A hysterically delicious, over-the-top black comedy about white trash. Peggy, the family matriarch, hits her head and bleeds to death in a seedy motel room after tripping over her young paramour's wooden legs. Seriously! Total chaos erupts in Winters, Texas as the family arrives for the funeral. The ensuing scandal exposes the sordid lives of Peggy's friends and family and although the entire bunch may be nuts, there's a sweetness underneath the hard surface. A slam-dunk of a comedy complete with big hair, big hearts, and big laughs.
